HOTEL FIRE

New Commercial Suffers Heavy Loss —Two Stables, Three Horses and Cow Burned.

A few minutes after 3 o'clock this morning the fire department was called out to fight the fiercest fire they have yet encountered. The fire was in the New Commercial Hotel, the stable at the rear of the hotel and the Cordes barn adjoining.

The two stables were a mass of flames when discovered and the alarm turned in from the B. & O. Station and by the time department arrived the flames were then leaping up the south and east sides of the hotel. The people in the hotel were hustling to get out and save their effects.

In a few moments the firemen had four streams of water going, but it was a stubborn fire to fight. The was a lot of hay in the Cordes barn and besides all the buildings were frame and being very dry made a hot and rapid fire. The stables were too far gone when the fire was discovered to save and these being so close to the frame hotel the fire was quickly communicated to that building. The south end of the hotel is a mass of ruins and the flames found their way through the entire second story. The roof was burned off and the whole of the second floor is ruined. In fact the fire and water just about finished the interior of the building.

The Cordes barn is an entire loss, together with three good horses, a buggy, a lot of feed and quite a good deal of goods that were stored there. The loss here will reach $1000 with insurance of only $300.

In the Colvin barn there was a cow and some feed and other things stored there, all of which were consumed. The insurance on this stable was $150 which will not more than half cover the loss.

The loss on the hotel is more difficult to estimate. The property is valued at $10,000 but much of the furnishings were removed and the building was only partially destroyed. There was $3,000 insurance on the building and $1,000 on contents but this will not nearly meet the loss. The hotel was owned by Mrs. John Colvin and the hotel was managed by her son, George Smith, and was doing good business.

The origin of the fire is unknown but there are those who believe it was set on fire. Some believe it started in the Colvin stable while others are of the opinion that it started in the Cordes barn.

The excellent water pressure at this fire has been frequently commented on today. While the fire was in progress and four line of hose were in use the pressure was so strong that the Chief went to a telephone twice and asked that the pressure be reduced so the men could handle the nozzles to a better advantage. This test shows that the recent improvements made at the pumping station are all right.

Bad Boy Cuts Capers.

The "Peck's Bad Boy" company were housed at the New Commercial last night when the fire broke out and had their exciting experiences along with other patrons of the house.

Shultz, the grocer lost his money, but saved $2000 in stage money. Knapp, the magician, the manipulator of many tricks succeeded in losing his shoes. Prof. Fine did not appear on the scene, being out to see Seymour by moon light. The three Mays who are always in the foreground proved to be of great value as it was from their vocal ability that the fire was discovered. The Bad Boy, who is unruly in stage life proved very calm in every day life, as she only lost a tooth brush. The manager, Mr. Matthews proved a well seasoned and cool headed man of many situations, getting his whole company safely from the New Commercial with comparatively small loss. Tonight they will be at the Majestic Theatre as billed. All are invited to attend and hear words from the heroes intermingled with up to date specialties. Muldoon, the cop will preserve order during your visit at the theatre.

Slaughter House Burned.

This forenoon L. G. Heins' slaughter house, a half mile south of town, caught fire from some unknown source and burned to the ground. The fire was discovered by Mr. Reddinger and another man and they went to the rescue, but all they could do was to carry out a few things from the building. The slaughter house was one of the best and most perfectly equipped in this section of Indiana and cost several hundreds of dollars. It was insured for $200 which scarcely begins to cover the loss. The origin of the fire is unknown. There had been no fire there since Thursday afternoon and then when the men left the fire was all carefully extinguished. It is the belief that some boys were in the building this morning and made some careless use of matches.

DIED.

OLIVER—Milton C. Oliver, late of this city and a member of Co. D, 22d Ind. Inf. during the Civil War, died at the Soldiers' Home at Marion Wednesday morning, Sept. 30th. Age 66 years. Mr. Oliver was afflicted with tuberculosis of the throat and went from here to the Soldiers' Home about six weeks ago. He was reared on a farm about three miles east of Seymour and spent most his life in this community. He was a farmer by occupation but in recent years had boarded in Seymour. His wife died several years ago. His son Louis Oliver, who was formerly employed in the Jerrell restaurant, is now serving his second term of enlistment in the United States Army and at present is somewhere in New York. The Marion Chronicle gives a short account of the death, names John Kirsch, of this city, as his next friend and gives the date of the funeral as Friday afternoon, October 2d.

SCIARRA—The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Sciarrara died of cholera infantum Friday morning at 7 o'clock at their home on east Sixth street. Age one year. Funeral from the residence Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Harley Jackson. Burial at Riverview cemetery.

A WHIRLWIND FINISH

Floods of Oratory to Mark Closing Days of Campaign.

Indianapolis, Oct. 2.—Preparations for a whirlwind finish of the campaign are being made at the headquarters of the two state committees. Chairman Hayes and Hendren of the rival speakers' bureaus are now planning meetings for every county, to be addressed by some of the most noted men in the country. At the Republican headquarters hope is held out that President Roosevelt will take the stump and make a tour that will include Indiana. "Give us two or three speeches from President Roosevelt and there will be nothing to it but the shouting," is the way the Republican leaders are talking at the committee rooms. Chairman Hayes says that the meetings this year are larger than they have been since the last Cleveland-Harrison campaign in 1892. "Representative Watson is having larger meetings than ever before," said Chairman Hayes. "That is saying a good deal, for he has been one of the most popular campaigners we have had in recent years. Every speaker the national committee has sent us is being received by large and enthusiastic crowds. The people are interested. The kind of meetings we are having makes me feel sure that the Republicans are going to win." While Chairman Hayes's associates agree with him as to the size of the meetings, they also declare that a couple of speeches by President Roosevelt are needed to cinch the state for Taft. A half-way promise has been made that Taft shall tour Indiana in a special train the latter part of October. The Republican leaders say that it is necessary for him to come so that the people can get acquainted with him. Chairman Hayes said today that Senator Beveridge will begin his Indiana tour on Oct. 22. He will make at least a dozen speeches. Governor Hanly will make his first political speech to night at Brownstown. There is much speculation as to what he will say.

Political Gossip.

Governor Hanly will arrive here at 5:45 this evening and will be conveyed in an automobile to Brownstown where he speaks tonight. Some will go from here to hear him.

Judge Willard New, of North Vernon, addressed some democrats at Armory Hall last night after which the organization of a democratic club was started.

TELEPHONES

The New Company Franchise Criticised by the Old Company.

The attack on the Old Telephone Company of Seymour carried on by the Merchants Association through the columns of the newspapers has had little or no effect. If any effect has been obtained it has been in favor of the Old Company. We have tried to treat fairly with all of these matters, and if we have made a mistake or make one in the future, it is an error in judgement.

Much has been said about the franchise granted the new telephone company. A report of an Indianapolis Association has been repeatedly referred to. A part of this report is as follows:

"It is in our opinion advisable and better for the citizens of Indianapolis that SERVICE should be furnished by one company, provided, an agreement can be made securing from one company GOOD SERVICE at all times, at reasonable rates, with power reserved by the city to maintain and enforce these conditions."

Statement after statement has been made claiming that the new company was operating under a franchise that met this demand and protected the people. This franchise, from beginning to end does not refer to the kind of service to be given now or hereafter by the company. The words good service, bad service or indifferent service do not appear in the franchise. This cannot be denied by anybody who has read the franchise; and still there are people who would like to have everyone believe that it did.

As to the regulation of rates, if there is a section in this franchise that effects in any way the raising of these rates it is Section 5 which reads as follows:

"If said report shows that the income has not been sufficient to meet the dividends, running expenses, and eight per cent of the capital stock for depreciation fund, the directors shall be empowered to raise the price of phone service to a point sufficient only to cover such deficit, provided, that dividends in excess of six per cent shall not be allowed, if the rates for phone service are in excess of one dollar and twenty-five cents for residence and two dollars and twenty-five cents for business or office phones."

Is there a man who understands the English language who would have the nerve to say that the people were guaranteed against a raise in rates under such a clause?

If on account of bad management or inability of the directors to run the new company at its present rates, and their report at the end of any year shows a deficit, they could under the franchise, raise the rates for telephone service to a point sufficient to cover the deficit no matter what its amount. And the only penalty for this raise, is a reduction in dividends from eight to six per cent. There can be little doubt in the mind of any man as to where the power lies to govern the rates. The raising of the rates rests absolutely and entirely with the directors and the city has not one thing to do with this. After the rate has once been raised, if the concern should pass into the hands of the Bell Company or the old directors, profiting by their experience, should be able to run the business from that time AT THE ADVANCED RATES on a paying basis, how would the subscriber receive a reduction in his telephone rate? Isn't that an example of a "Fine Italian hand?"

If there is a section in the franchise that has any effect on the reduction of rates it is Section 3 which is as follows:

"If the said report shows the profit of said company to have been such after paying expenses including interest and setting aside eight per cent of the capital stock to cover depreciation of the plant, and not exceeding eight per cent dividend on the capital stock of said corporation, it shall be the duty of the directors to reduce prices of service to a rate that said directors may feel justified in doing. And until phone service is reduced all net earnings over and above the dividend provided for, shall be retained in the surplus fund."

This clause does NOT say the directors MUST reduce prices of phone service, but that it will be the DUTY of the directors to do it. And, in case of a reduction, it would be to a rate that the directors MIGHT FEEL JUSTIFIED in making. The only penalty for not reducing the rates would be that the poor fellows would have to put the money in the surplus fund and not in the dividend account. It would not be much of a hardship to build up a new surplus and some day "cut the melon." The franchise does not prevent it.

If there should be a deficit and prices of telephones raised to cover this deficit under section 5 and the dividends thereby reduced from eight to six per cent, how then would the subscriber ever receive a reduction in rates under section 3? Under this section the directors could take out a six per cent dividend and put the two or more in the surplus fund, and then dispose of the surplus fund as they saw fit.

If there is a section in this franchise that gives the city any right to cancel or annul the franchise or any section thereof, or impose a penalty on the new company in case of a violation of any part thereof, we fail to find it. It should also be borne in mind that when the Indianapolis committee made its report it was their recommendation and desire that the two telephone companies be merged into one system and that neither of the companies would lose more than the other. They did not recommend that the men who had their money invested in either of these plants give up their property without compensation. They proposed a one system proposition on legitimate lines. You will find throughout this country very few men who would insist that another man in a legitimate business ought to lose his money absolutely and be run out of the community. But on the other hand a vast majority of the business men are fair minded American citizens, who are always in favor of giving every other man a fair show for the business he can get on legitimate lines, and it just occurs to us that Providence has not been exceptional in its distribution of these fair minded business men in and around Seymour. At least we have found a large majority of men of this character within the county.

Tuberculosis Congress.

Something of the magnitude of the international congress on tuberculosis, now in session at Washington, can be gained from a copy of the official program. There are 670 pages all on the subject of tuberculosis. That means about 600 hours or sixty days of ten hours each devoted to tuberculosis by the foremost men of the world.

In speaking of this meeting one doctor says: "If doctors and legislators of Indiana could visit the exposition and see what is being done by other countries and other states in this country they would almost be ashamed of their own state. It is high time Indiana should begin an earnest work for the improvement of the condition of their consumptive poor, including the building of a sanitarium."

Had Shoes To Sell.

Arthur Wilson, who was arrested Wednesday evening and held on a charge of vagrancy, was arraigned before Mayor Kyte and the charge of vagrancy dismissed. Wilson was immediately arrested on the charge of petit larceny and taken to Brownstown where he will be arraigned before Judge Shea. It is charged that Wilson was one of the men who broke into a car at Mitchell and stole some goods, some shoes among other things. Wilson came here with another man and disposed of three pairs of shoes. This caused suspicion and he was hunted up and arrested by Policeman Lane.

Reports Were Not Exaggerated As Many Local People Are Testifying.

The Root Juice instructors made many lasting friends while here. Their wonderful remedy has done worlds of good at this point and report of cures are being circulated from every direction. The drug store is more busy than ever wrapping up Root Juice and listening to the many flattering reports of the great good it is doing.

Mrs. Sarah Collins said: "I used to bloat so at times I could hardly get my breath, sour gases would form in my stomach and dull, heavy headaches were at times so bad I felt I would go crazy; my tongue coated and I always had a bad taste in my mouth. My hands and feet were cold at times and at other times they would burn like fire, but thank my good stars, after hearing so much about Root Juice, I went to the drug store and bought a bottle of it and after using the first bottle I went back and bought two more bottles. I have used it all and don't think I will need any more, as I feel as well as I ever did in my life."

Root Juice seems to be good for any trouble of the stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels or blood. It is sold for one dollar a bottle or three for two dollars and a half at W. F. Peter's drug store.

Our store will be closed Monday Oct. 5th until 6 p. m. Gold Mine Dept. Store. 01w-o2-3 d

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and salty complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend

HARMONY THE FIRST THING

The President Wants to Know What's the Matter.

HITCHCOCK AT WHITE HOUSE

Chairman of the Republican National Committee Today Discussing With the President the Vital Features of the Present Campaign With a View to Correcting Certain Points Upon Which There Has Undoubtedly Been Criticism in Influential Quarters With Demands for Revision of Methods.

Washington, October 2.—Chairman Hitchcock of the Republican national committee is expected in Washington today and the general understanding here is that while in the city he will call upon the president for the purpose of exchanging views with him regarding the conduct of the campaign in behalf of Secretary Taft.

It was reported here today that the president had summoned Mr. Hitchcock for the purpose of requesting from him an explanation of many criticisms which have recently come to the White House concerning the management of affairs both in New York and Chicago, but Secretary Loeb denied the portion of the report which attributed Mr. Hitchcock's coming to a special request from the president. There is, however, excellent authority for the statement that a number of complaints as to the management of the campaign have reached the executive mansion, and the understanding is that, although he has not requested the presence of the chairman of the national committee, President Roosevelt will welcome the opportunity to talk with him and to obtain from him such explanations of these criticisms as he may be able to make.

So far as divulged, the censure seems to point to the fact that the national committee has this year failed to co-operate as completely and zealously with the congressional committee as in past years, and it is understood that some of the criticisms have come from Republican candidates for congress.

Reports of discourteous conduct at the national committee headquarters toward Republicans of prominence have also reached the president, and while probably it is not his purpose to inquire into the details of the office of management of committee affairs, he is so thoroughly impressed with the importance of absolute party harmony that he feels no matter can be too small for proper attention.

These and perhaps many other subjects will doubtless be taken up with Mr. Hitchcock, largely if not entirely for the purpose of obtaining from that gentleman an explanation of the situation from the chairman's standpoint. Naturally, too, the president desires information from first hand as to the progress of the campaign.

Reports of Friction Denied.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 2.—Congressman William B. McKinley, chairman of the Republican congressional committee, denies that any friction exists between the Republican national committee and the congressional committee. "Both committees are working in harmony," he declared. "The conference which is being held in Washington is merely a discussion of plans for the campaign." Congressman James S. Sherman, Republican nominee for vice president, also declared that there is no friction whatever between the two committees.

ACTRESS WELL FIXED

Compromise With Young Elkins Provides for Her for Life.

Elkins, W. Va., Oct. 2.—State Senator Fred C. Blue and William E. Baker, attorneys for Blaine Elkins and his father, Senator Stephen B. Elkins, in the breach of promise suit brought against Blaine Elkins by Miss Ada Lonsdale of New York, have authorized the statement:

"Letters from the plaintiff to Judge Dayton and to the press show conclusively she did not want the suit brought, and that the affidavit, with out precedent in such a suit so widely published, was procured according to her statement, by misrepresentation. Comment is not needed to show what the purpose of the suit is, and the procuring and publishing of the affidavit means." Local attorneys for Miss Lonsdale who claim that she dropped the suit only after a settlement was made, say that they will file a claim for an attorney's lien. It is reported that the suit for $100,000 breach of promise brought last week by Louise Lonsdale is now on the high seas with a traveling companion, bound for Paris.

The terms of the settlement are that Miss Lonsdale will be paid $50 a week for the remainder of her life, which is equal to a lump sum of $50,000. All her debts have been paid, and included in the settlement is the trip abroad, which she is now enjoying, with all expenses paid, together with those of her traveling companion. In consideration of this life settlement it was said that Miss Lonsdale has signed papers characterizing as a lie her deposition made to her lawyers, and, in fact, is ready to refute the whole story.

DEADLY COLLISION

Six Members of Excursion Party Killed in an Ohio Wreck.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 2.—Six lives were lost and a number of persons were injured at 8 o'clock last night when a Toledo & Ohio Central passenger train carrying an excursion crowd from Bowling Green fair into Toledo, was run into from the rear at Sugar Ridge by a freight train.

The dead: Richard Radelet and Joe Gasler of Sugar Ridge; J. F. McCroy and J. G. Boyd of East Toledo; — Stonebridge of Bunbridge, and one unidentified man.

The rear car of the excursion train was telescoped and two others were jammed together. The excursion train stopped, it is said, because of a hotbox. Whether a flagman was sent back to warn the approaching freight has not been ascertained.

CHICAGO SCHOOLS HEAR BAD REPORT

Ten Thousand Children Are Insufficiently Nourished.

Chicago, Oct. 2.—Ten thousand school children in Chicago are insufficiently nourished, some live constantly on the verge of starvation, and many are not clad enough to keep them in a healthy condition, according to a report made to the board of education. Specific instances of poverty, noted in a house-to-house inspection, are given in the report, which is regarded as reflecting a social condition in Chicago. Many parents were found to sleep so late that their children went to school without breakfast. In one house where the father was out of work and the mother sick, five children were found to have lived three days on dry bread and tea. In another house six children reported they lived on one meal a day. Another mother employed as a seamstress said she supported her four children on $2.50 a week. Numerous pupils reported inability to attend school because of insubordination of their parents.

In the poorer sections of the stockyards district the most heartrending conditions were disclosed.

Heard the Call of the Wild.

New Brunswick, N. J., Oct. 2.—A full-grown African lion escaped from the winter quarters of a circus located between this city and Bound Brook, and after having been hunted by keepers all night, was shot and killed by a farmer. Before its end the lion killed two cows and a calf.

PROPHETIC CANDIDATE

"I Am Going to Be Elected" Declares Mr. Taft.

HIS BELIEF IS WELL BASED

Effect of His Speech-Making Tour

Thus Far Convinces the Nominee

That the People are "For" Him, and

That There Is No Reason Why the Republican Party Should Not Hold

Its Own in the Coming Contest—

Frank Statement Made by Mr. Taft

in Course of Address at Omaha.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 2.—"I am going to be elected." This statement made last night by William H. Taft, sums up in a word what the candidate thinks of the effect of his speech-making tour thus far. The belief is based, Mr. Taft explained, on the manner of his reception in states thus far traversed in which there was reported to be defections among the Republican ranks.

As to the national ticket, Mr. Taft now believes that there is no reason to doubt but that the Republican party will hold its own, and should this prove the case, Mr. Taft says there is no doubt that he will get the electoral vote of Wisconsin, Minnesota, the Dakotas, Iowa and Nebraska—the states as to which the disaffection was supposed to exist.

"I have been in real touch with the people," continued Mr. Taft. "They have come to see me and hear me in numbers far beyond my anticipation, and, what seems of even more importance, they have responded to what I have had to say in a way that I could feel their sympathy. The desire of my audiences today to get in personal contact with me has been marked and shows more than a passing interest."

Thirteen speeches were made by the candidate yesterday in a swing around the southeastern part of Nebraska and terminating at Omaha last night, where two big meetings, one for the benefit of the stockyards employees in South Omaha, the other in the Auditorium, were held. The speech at the Auditorium was a repetition of what he has frequently said about the tariff, the trusts and the general records of the Republican and Democratic parties.

The entire itinerary for the day included speeches at the following places: Crete, Wilber, Demitt, Beatrice, Wymore, Pawnee, Falls City, Auburn, Table Rock, Nebraska City, Plattsmouth, South Omaha and Omaha. The Taft special left here shortly after 10 o'clock last night for Denver, Col., by way of Cheyenne, Wyo. He will reach Denver tonight.

MR. BRYAN AGITATED

Issues Statement Upon His Return to Fairview.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 2.—Declaring that every disinterested voter knows that large contributions have been used to secure mortgages upon officials, William J. Bryan last night issued at Fairview a statement criticising the adoption by William H. Taft, his Republican opponent for president, of President Roosevelt's announced view on the subject of the publicity of campaign contributions.

Mr. Taft, says Mr. Bryan, "makes the same charge the president does—the astounding charge that the voters are so liable to be misled that the knowledge (as to the amounts and sources of campaign contributions) must be kept from them." The Democratic nominee quotes Mr. Taft's statement that "the candidate in whose behalf the contributions are made will be charged in the most unfair way as being completely under the control of those who make the contributions," and then adds: "Here he makes the same charge that the president does, the astounding charge—that the voters are so liable to be misled that the knowledge must be kept from them. I insist that it is an insult to the intelligence of the voters, and it does little credit to Mr. Taft's judgment of the men to whom he is making his appeal. Mr. Roosevelt may have made his statement thoughtlessly and on the impulse of the moment, but Mr. Taft brings the same indictment against the voters with de liberation and after he has read a criticism of the president's views. It is fair to charge, therefore, that Mr. Taft is either expecting to receive contributions which would arouse just suspicion among an intelligent people, or contributions which if known would arouse an unjust suspicion among a people too ignorant to form a correct judgment upon the facts. This is an evasion which he can neither retract nor excuse. It can only be explained by a consciousness that Republican campaign methods will not bear the light and that it would be dangerous to his party if the public knew before the election what he promises to make public after the election."

Big Hunt for Desperadoes.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 2.—Excitement in Arvon is greatly allayed, but in the outlying districts, where the houses are several miles distant from each other, the people are still fearful of visitations from the Zimmerman-Thomas gang of outlaws. The crisis was reached when Edmund W. Hubbard, commonwealth attorney of Buckingham county, telegraphed to the justice of the peace in Arvon to summon eighty men and to form them in squads of twenty to scour the country for the desperadoes. Mr. Hubbard acted after some consultation with Governor Swanson. It is expected that the vigilance committee started last night, though no direct information of their movements or plans of the authorities could be gained. The latest report from the outlaw country is that Charles Newton, brother-in-law of Benjamin Zimmerman, supposed to be the leader of the gang, is dead from wounds inflicted by some one of the desperadoes.

Uncle Sam's Monthly Balance.

Washington, Oct. 2.—The monthly comparative statement of the government's receipts and expenditures shows that for the month of September, 1908, there was an excess of expenditures over receipts of $4,583,971, as against a deficit for August of $3,909,128. The receipts for September, however, were over $3,000,000 in excess of that for August, and the expenditures $3,700,000 in excess of August.

SUFFERED WITH ECZEMA 25 YEARS

Limb Peeled and Foot Was Like Raw Flesh—Had to Use Crutches, and Doctors Thought Amputation Necessary—Montreal Woman Writes of Cure Seven Years Ago.

BELIEVES LIFE SAVED BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I have been treated by doctors for twenty-five years for a bad case of eczema on my leg. They did their best, but failed to cure it. My doctor had advised me to have my leg cut off, but I said I would try the Cuticura Remedies first. He said, 'Try them if you like, but I do not think they will do any good.' At this time my leg was like a piece of raw flesh, and I had to walk on crutches. I bought a cake of Cuticura Soap, a box of Cuticura Ointment, and a bottle of Cuticura Pills. After the first two treatments the swelling went down, and in two months my leg was cured and the new skin came on. The doctor could not believe his own eyes when he saw that Cuticura had cured me and said that he would use it for his own patients. I used two cakes of Cuticura Soap, three boxes of Ointment, and five bottles of Resolvent, and I have now been cured over seven years, and but for the Cuticura Remedies I might have lost my life. I have lots of grandchildren, and they are frequent users of Cuticura, and I always recommend it to the many people whom my business brings to my house every day. Mrs. Jean-Baptiste Renaud, clairvoyant, 277, Montana St., Montreal, Que., Feb. 20, 1907."

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1908.

The Tom Marshall Club at Peru, a democratic organization named after the democratic candidate for governor, has adopted resolutions denouncing Burton Green for voting for local option. Green is a democrat, a member of the legislature and a candidate for reelection. Now because Green voted for local option on the last roll call on the bill the members of a club named for the democratic candidate for governor wants him to get off the ticket.

AN unqualified approval of William H. Taft as a presidential candidate was given by Rev. James Coote, D. D., pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church in Thompsonville, Conn., when he called at the headquarters of the Republican National Committee. For years Dr. Coote has taken a prominent part in Methodist circles in New England and in New York, having been a presiding elder and occupied leading pulpits. "No man has spoken so earnestly in favor of the great work that Christian missions are doing in the Philippines, in China and in the orient generally as Mr. Taft," said Dr. Coote. "In an address at Yale University he emphasized that idea particularly, and on several other occasions he spoke enthusiastically of the good being done by aggressive Christian evangelism in the different countries which he visited. It seems to me that no evangelical Christian should hesitate to support Judge Taft. He is just as big and broad in his religious ideas as he is in his physical proportions. He can be trusted to do what is fair and right with all denominations."

JAMES E. WATSON will be the chief speaker at a big republican meeting in Columbus on Tuesday night, Oct. 13th. Mr. Watson is one of the busiest men in the state just now speaking, every night and sometimes twice a day. He is booked solid till the last of this month and will hardly miss a night from now till the day of the election.

SENATOR BEVERIDGE made an unanswerable point in his Terre Haute speech this week when he asked: "How many mills would Mr. Bryan's election open?" This is a question that every laboring man should answer for himself. Is there anything in the situation, viewed from any point whatever, that is calculated to encourage the belief that Bryan's election would do anything toward helping industrial conditions? On the contrary, is it not certain that a verdict in Bryan's favor in the coming election would mean the overturning of business conditions to such an extent that years would be required before a readjustment in manufacturing could be made?—Washington Herald.

ACTS OF THE LEGISLATURE

Publication Will Be Pushed as Rapidly as Possible.

LOCAL OPTION NOT YET A LAW

Until Publication of This Act, Provisions of Drastic New Temperance Measure Are Not Operative, and It Will Be About a Month Before the Acts of the Special Session Can Be Promulgated—Something Relating to the Cost of the Session, Which Will Foot Up in the Near Neighborhood of $26,000.

Indianapolis, Oct. 2.—Frank I. Grubbs, deputy secretary of state, said today that it likely would be the latter part of the month before the work of publishing the acts of the special session of the legislature is complete. Although only seven bills were passed at the special session, the time required for publication will be almost as long as that required for publishing the acts of a regular session. More than 20,000 copies will be published, and while the work of printing will not amount to much, it will require just as much time to bind 20,000 small volumes as it would to bind as many large ones.

All of the measures passed by the legislature had emergency clauses except the local option bill and one bill relating to the use of bits in coal mines. Those that had emergency clauses become laws as soon as they have been signed by the governor. All have been signed by the governor except the bill relating to mining and a night rider bill. The Johnson mining bill has an emergency clause and the Bland mining bill has none. These bills otherwise are identical and the governor, of course, will sign only one. If he signs the Johnson bill it will become a law at once. These measures increase the maximum size of bits which may be used in coal mines from 2 1/4 inches to 3 1/4 inches. The night rider bill that has not been signed increases the penalty for destroying tobacco. For the destruction of tobacco it provides a jail sentence of not more than six months or a penitentiary sentence of from one to five years. For any threat made with a view to getting a tobacco grower to sell his product to any particular dealer, it provides a fine of from $25 to $500 and a jail sentence of not more than six months.

Bills That Have Been Signed.

The bills that have been signed by the governor are the local option bill, the bill relating to specific appropriations which would have reverted at the end of the fiscal year, the measure providing appropriations for certain state institutions, and $12,000 for the preservation of old battleflags, the bill legalizing the contract between the board of commissioners of the Southeastern hospital for the insane and Pulse & Porter and the bill appropriating $40,000 for the expenses of the special session.

Although exact figures have not been compiled, it was estimated today that the expense of the special session would amount to about $26,000. The legislature was in session thirteen days, including two Sundays, and it was estimated that the expenses were $2,000 a day. While the number of clerks was not so great as during a regular session, the payment of mileage makes up for the decrease in the daily expense. The mileage payments will amount to about $6,000. During a regular session this would be distributed over sixty-one days.

Distributing it over thirteen days, however, makes the daily expense from this source something over $450. The fifty senators, of course, drew $300 a day, and the representatives $600 a day. Then there were pages, janitors and clerks who drew from $2 to $5 a day. The expense of printing the acts of the special session will amount to about $1,250, as estimated by Harry Slough, clerk of the public printing bureau. The expense of printing the journals of the two houses will be about $600, and the printing of bills and supplies, such as ink wells, paper, etc., cost a little less than $700. All of this would make the total expense a few dollars more than $2,000 a day.

SITUATION AT GARY

One Hundred Saloons in "Magic City" Put Out of Business.

Hammond, Ind., Oct. 2.—The licenses of thirty Gary saloon keepers have just expired and they have all been forced to go out of business. This is the result of the work of the Anti-Saloon League of Indiana, which, by remonstrance, after the most bitterly contested legal fight ever known in the state, sealed the fate of 100 saloons within two months. When the rest of the saloons go out of business Gary will be a "dry" town.

It is estimated that a loss of $200,000 will result in fixtures and supplies to the saloon keepers.

Series "R"

The Cooperative Building and Loan Association starts a new series "R" on Monday Oct. 5. The Cooperative has come to be one of the reliable financial institutions of our city. Its business has grown steadily since its organization. Thousands and thousands of dollars have been paid out to maturing stockholders and hundreds of homes are owned by their occupants through the plan offered by the Cooperative. This plan makes it easy for anyone to accumulate some money or to pay for a home by making small weekly payments. Each stockholder pays twenty-five cents per week for each share of stock he owns. He can take as many shares as he chooses. This money is loaned to those who wish to borrow at six per cent. interest and the earnings are apportioned among all stockholders whether they are borrowers or investors. When the stock and earnings amount to one hundred dollars, it has matured and is withdrawn, or in case of a borrower the loan is cancelled.

The Cooperative is managed for the benefit of its stockholders. It has no high-salaried officials; its directors serve without pay, and they are all representative business men of Seymour. The Cooperative holds the confidence of our citizens as is evidenced by its constantly-growing business.

A new series of stock starts each six months and the next one on Monday Oct. 5. See the secretary Thos. J. Clark for full particulars.

Popular Young Lady Here.

Mrs. Harve Boling and daughter, Miss Myrtle, of Washington county, came here Thursday evening and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Rigel today. Miss Boling is one of Washington county's most popular young ladies and is an artist and cartoonist of no mean ability. Four years ago she won a trip to the St. Louis World's Fair in a popularity contest which carried with it besides free transportation $50 expense money and also a free scholarship in a correspondence school at Indianapolis. As she had a taste for drawing she chose her special course in that line. The contest was conducted by one of the Salem papers. On the last day of the spirited contest the newspaper office was crowded for hours up to the minute the contest closed. One man paid his subscription in advance for twelve years in his zeal to assist his favorite candidate. Miss Boling later won in a contest conducted by one of the large Louisville dailies and got a trip through old Virginia, Washington City and other eastern and southern cities. She is a bright young lady and has traveled quite extensively for a person of her age. Her acquaintance is very extensive throughout a large number of the towns and cities where these papers circulate. She resides with her parents on their farm five miles north of Salem.

Peck's Bad Boy.

The opening attraction of the season at the Majestic Theatre will be tonight. "Peck's Bad Boy" and "Papa's Return" will be the double attraction and it is a very funny show. ### Taft May Speak Here.

It is now reported that William H. Taft, the republican candidate for president, will likely make a second speaking tour in Indiana, when the candidate will go on into Kentucky. It is thought that in reaching Kentucky he will take the Pennsylvania line south from Indianapolis. In that event arrangements will doubtless be made for speeches at Columbus, Seymour, Jeffersonville, and other places between Indianapolis and Louisville.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure.

"The Blood is The Life."

Science has never gone beyond the above simple statement of scripture. But it has illuminated that statement and given it a meaning ever broadening with the increasing breadth of knowledge. When the blood is "bad" or impure it is not alone the body which suffers through disease. The brain is also clouded, the mind and judgement are affected, and many an evil deed or impure thought may be directly traced to the impurity of the blood. Foul, impure blood can be made pure by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It enriches and purifies the blood thereby curing, pimples, blotches, eruptions and other cutaneous affections, as eczema, tetter, or salt-rheum, hives and other manifestations of impure blood.

In the cure of scrofulous swellings, enlarged glands, open eating ulcers, or old sores, the "Golden Medical Discovery" has performed the most marvelous cures. In cases of old sores, or open eating ulcers, it is well to apply to the open sores Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve, which possesses wonderful healing potency when used as an application to the sores in conjunction with the use of "Golden Medical Discovery" as a blood cleansing constitutional treatment. If your druggist don't happen to have the "All-Healing Salve" in stock, you can easily procure it by inclosing fifty-four cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post. Most druggists keep it as well as the "Golden Medical Discovery."

You can't afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery," which is a medicine of known composition, having a complete list of ingredients in plain English on its bottle-wrapper, the same being attested as correct under oath. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels.

HEARST HAS MORE LETTERS

At Denver He Lets Loose Another Broadside.

MORE ABOUT GOV. HASKELL

Affidavits Connecting the Oklahoman With the Citizens' Alliance at Muskogee Are Introduced, as Are Also Further Letters Revealing Additional Profits on Mr. Foraker's Part in His Standard Oil Relation, While the New Yorker Pays Personal Regards to Roosevelt.

Denver, Col., Oct. 1.—In a speech consuming less than thirty minutes, William R. Hearst last night renewed his charges against Senator Foraker of Ohio and Governor Charles N. Haskell of Oklahoma, and read additional letters and affidavits bearing upon the charges. Two letters addressed to Senator Foraker and signed by John D. Archbold of the Standard Oil company, in which were enclosed certificates of deposit for $5,000 and $10,000 respectively, each bearing date 1900, were read. In this connection, Mr. Hearst referred to the claim of Senator Foraker that he (Hearst) had not made public any of the letters which would prove Foraker's innocence. "I have no such letters in my large collection," he said. In support of his claim that Governor Haskell was a member of the Citizens' Alliance of Muskogee, Okla., Mr. Hearst read an affidavit dated Sept. 21, 1908, and signed by Morgan Carroway of Muskogee, who declared that he was secretary of the alliance and had received money for dues from Mr. Haskell and had frequently talked of policies to be pursued by the alliance with reference to organized labor. A letter from John Farrell of Muskogee was also read, which says that the signer was selected as sergeant-at-arms of the alliance through the influence of Mr. Haskell.

Mr. Hearst paid his respects to President Roosevelt and Mr. Bryan and compared the action of the president in repudiating Senator Foraker with that of Mr. Bryan, who, he said, was willing to take the responsibility for Governor Haskell's connection with the Democratic national committee. "Well, let him take the responsibility," he continued. Resuming his comments on President Roosevelt, Mr. Hearst said it was not true that he and the president "have altered our opinion of each other and are working now hand in hand," as the Democrats charge. "I dislike Mr. Roosevelt personally and have every reason to dislike him. When I was running for governor of New York, Mr. Roosevelt sent his present mouthpiece, Tweed's ex-defender, in to New York to say what was false about me and what Mr. Roosevelt knew to be false. If ever I have an opportunity to even things up with Mr. Roosevelt after he has ceased to be president, I shall do so with particular satisfaction. But while Mr. Roosevelt is president of the United States, my attitude toward him is that of any loyal citizen of the United States."

Mr. Hearst denied that he was trying to elect Mr. Taft, a statement he credited to Mr. Bryan.

KEEPING HIS PROMISE

After Getting What He Wanted the Governor Enters the Campaign.

Indianapolis, Oct. 1.—Governor Hanly, in accordance with his promise to enter the campaign if the Republican party supported him in his fight for county unit local option, will begin a speaking tour of Indiana tomorrow night with an address at Brownstown. Following the governor will be a number of distinguished speakers of national reputation, the first of whom is James S. Sherman, vice presidential nominee, who will stop at Evansville, Muncie, Elkhart and possibly several other points in the state before departing to fulfill engagements in Ohio. Republican state headquarters in the Claypool hotel is being flooded with requests from smaller towns for speakers. Heavy as is the demand, Will H. Hays, at the head of the speakers' bureau, is supplying all. Final arrangements for the first part of Governor Hanly's tour have been arranged. After the meeting at Brownstown tomorrow night he will go to Cloverdale, where he will speak Saturday afternoon. Sunday he will rest. Monday he is slated for Crawfordsville at 7:30 p. m. No engagement is announced for Oct. 6, but on Oct. 7 he will speak at a rally in Kingman early in the afternoon. Many maps already have been worn out at Republican headquarters, and many more will be required before all of the speakers for the remainder of the campaign have been placed. W. H. Taft, presidential nominee, it is said probably will visit Indiana again between his first and second tours, or at the beginning of the second one, which will carry him from his home in Cincinnati through Kentucky and Tennessee to Southern territory. Nothing further has been announced as to when President Roosevelt will come to the state if he enters the speaking campaign.

At the Democratic state headquarters it is announced that a list of distinguished speakers had been procured to appear in Indianapolis and various other cities in Indiana in October. The number includes, among the more prominent, Theodore Bell of California, Henry D. Clayton of Alabama, Governor John Johnson of Minnesota, and Congressman Champ Clark of Missouri. The Democrats have received numerous demands from small towns for speakers and are completing the list as quickly as possible. One of the noted party leaders engaged by the state committee is Senator E. W. Carmack of Tennessee. He will speak in Kendallville on Oct. 15 at 1:30 p. m., and Ligonier at 7:30. The next day he will be at Lagrange in the afternoon and Topeka at night. On Oct. 17 at 1:30 o'clock he will address a meeting at Angola and another at Auburn that night. Congressman Ollie James of Marion, Ky., one of W. J. Bryan's closest friends and a rival of Norman E. Mack of Buffalo, N. Y., for chairman of the Democratic national committee, is booked to speak Oct. 9 at Sullivan early in the afternoon and at Princeton at night. Oct. 10, he will be in Washington, Ohio; Mitchell, night; Oct. 12, Peru, afternoon; Rochester, night. Theodore Bell, who was the Democratic nominee for governor of California in 1906, and who was temporary chairman of the Denver convention, will be accompanied on his trip by Frank E. Hering of South Bend. The two will speak according to this schedule: Oct. 5, Fort Wayne, afternoon; Goshen, night. Oct. 6, Crawfordsville, afternoon; Greenfield, night. Oct. 7, Vincennes, afternoon; Evansville, night. Representative John Sharp Williams of Mississippi, who recently was elected to the senate, will be in Plymouth Oct. 15, 1:30 p. m., and Fort Wayne at night. Oct. 16, Huntington, afternoon; Richmond, night. Oct. 17, Shelbyville, afternoon; Kokomo, night. Congressman Champ Clark of Missouri has consented to speak on Oct. 8 in Veedsburg in the afternoon; Oct. 9, Warren, afternoon; Oct. 10, Lawrenceburg, night. Governor Claude Swanson of Virginia on Oct. 7 will be in Elkhart; Oct. 8, Warsaw; Oct. 9 and 10, Attica and Kokomo, respectively.

J. A. Cox, a young lawyer of Crothersville, was nominated for congress by the Republicans of the Fourth district in convention at North Vernon. There were no other candidates, and the nomination was by acclamation. Mr. Cox two years ago ran for joint senator, but was defeated.

POLITICIANS SHAKE IN BOOTS

They Feel That Legislature Has Let Hoodoo Loose.

WHICH PARTY WILL SUFFER?

This Is the Question That Was Soberly Asked by the Leaders of Both Parties After the Curtain Had Been Rung Down on the Governor's Special Session, the Last Moment Pointing to Another in a Startling Train of "Thirteens" That Has Marked the Session.

Indianapolis, Oct. 1.—When the special session of the legislature was adjourned late Wednesday afternoon the question arose as to which party will suffer a "hoodoo" because of the laws it enacted. It was recalled that not only did the legislators assemble on Friday, but that they were in session just thirteen days. Moreover, the house, which has been the storm center, ran down the final curtain at 3:13 o'clock. It was admitted that the 13 hoodoo hit the brewery alliance on the solar plexus in the enactment of the county local option law. Whether the enactment of this law will hoodoo the Republicans more than the Democrats was a matter over which there is a wide difference of opinion and probably will be until the votes are counted. The Republican leaders are asserting that the special session has not proved a hoodoo for their party, while the Democrats insist that the people have resented the whole performance. Unable to agree on the probable political significance of the session, the legislators and the party leaders admitted that there is a 13 hoodoo loose and that it will confront someone on election day.

Record of the Session.

The special session will be remembered as having enacted the most drastic temperance law the state has ever placed on its statutes. Within the next six months it is not unlikely that at least three-fourths of the counties will be made "dry" by the operation of this new law. The session re-appropriated money for the state institutions, as the governor requested, but turned down his demand for repudiation of the Vincennes university bonds. His demand for night rider legislation was not taken seriously, and the legislature also refused to make an appropriation of $151,000 to cover the difference between the contract awarded Pulse & Porter of Greensburg, for completing the Southeastern hospital for the insane at Madison, and the contract of E. M. Campbell of Findlay, O., which was cancelled. A law carrying an appropriation of $12,000 for preservation of the state's battleflags was enacted. An amendment to the mining laws permitting the miners to use larger bits was enacted, but the operators are trying to induce Governor Hanly not to sign it. The session cost the state in the neighborhood of $30,000.

After the legislature adjourned Governor Hanly said he was well satisfied with the results of the session. He discussed both the session and the report of the committee which investigated the charge of attempted bribery on the part of the chief executive. "The legislature," said the governor, "has come and gone. Its work vindicates the wisdom of the special session, and I am greatly gratified at the results accomplished. On the whole it has done its work well."

With reference to the report of the investigating committee the governor said: "The action of the committee speaks for itself. I will say, however, that the evidence of Mr. Knisely was not entitled to credence. I will say further that the facts are such as to exonerate Senator Wickwire also."

The result of the investigation of the charge made by Representative Knisely of undue pressure brought to bear upon him by the governor in an alleged effort to secure his vote in support of the executive's temperance program, was about as expected. The committee's report exonerating the governor and likewise protecting Knisely from any charge impugning his honor was perhaps considered the best way out of what was delicately termed a "misunderstanding." The hearing of the Knisely charges turned upon a question of veracity between the governor and the representative.

Six witnesses were heard—Governor Hanly, Senator Wickwire, Representative Knisely, the Rev. Harry B. Stevens of Garrett, Ind., Representative James Garrard of Knox county, and Senator Kistler. The net result of their testimony seemed to be that Knisely had not been shaken in his story of the alleged attempt to influence his vote by the suggestion of giving him a position, and the governor and senator had not been shaken in their denial and their recital of the incidents concerning the alleged attempt. The governor, as he had done in his statement to the house when asking for the investigation, characterized the story told by Knisely as unqualifiedly untrue. Knisely, for his part, declared the statement made by the governor in his testimony to be absolutely false.

THE POLITICAL WEATHERVANE.

Mr. Bryan has expressed admiration of President Roosevelt and his policies. He has claimed himself as rightful legatee of all of them, and a lot of American citizens, unblest with the sense of humor, have applauded him in his claim. Here's an analogy to the Bennett will case for sure.

How easily the rhetorician may reverse his views! He started out on the campaign to praise the president whose official shoes he coveted. He went to little old New York and talked with his new dear friends and old cordial haters, David Bennett Hill and Alton Parker. Promptly after the confab Bryan started in to deplore the radicalism of President Roosevelt and defame the radical. He promised all sorts of "safe, sane and conservative" things. That was in the "effete East." To the "woolly West" he whispered: "Don't mind what I say to these mossbacks in Manhattan. That talk's a gold brick. You know our metal is different."

Bryan has fallen far from his old ideals. He is now a trimmer. He sets his sails according to the political winds in the sectional seas he happens to be sailing in. The Bryan of twelve years ago, though then the paid hired man of the big silver mine owners of the trans-Missouri country was really more admirable than the Bryan of today. The honest men who admired him and his political theories in '96 and have not veered from their principles since, should vote for Thomas L. Hisgen, who stands on a platform that should appeal to them.

"Machiavellian" is an adjective of well-known meaning. The dictionaries define it as "politically cunning; characterized by duplicity or bad faith." In these days of Taggartian activity the student's mind reverts to Machiavelli, the master "practical politician" of Italy 400 years ago and author of that famous and notorious book, "El Principe." It was in "The Prince" that he flaunted his philosophy, holding "that the application of moral standards to politics is as little to the point as it would be in the navigation of a ship."

Tom Taggart never read "The Prince," but he may fairly be considered Machiavelli's avatar in Indiana today. To us Taggartian is as apt and meaningful an adjective as Machiavellian.

It is a pet cry of Democratic papers in Indiana that it is a sin against the people to send to congress any lawyer who has ever worked for a railroad corporation. John W. Kern is now an attorney for the Big Four Railroad company, and these same papers urge his being sent where he can have much influence over the committees a vice president appoints in the United States senate in their work of railroad regulation and legislation. And has not Thomas Riley Marshall, the Democratic candidate for governor, been a successful legal representative of railroad and other corporations?

Last fall Mr. Bryan was given Haskell's odoriferous record and he tore up the ten typewritten pages bearing it, written by an Oklahoma Democratic editor. All the charges now made and continuing to be made by Mr. Hearst were in that document. Mr. Bryan in his letter replying to President Roosevelt, said he was ignorant of any charges ever having been made against his treasurer of the Democratic national committee. That may have been true literally, but it was certainly false virtually. The plain lie is avoided by Mr. Bryan, but he is fond of affecting the veneered falsehood.

It is about time some people would quit questioning the sincerity and honesty of the Republican party on the temperance question. All the temperance laws on the statute books of Indiana were put there by the Republican party. No one can question the sincerity and honesty of the party in the fight for county local option. The state organization and every man on the state ticket fought day and night for this bill. Honor to whom honor is due.

The temperance fight now on in Indiana is one of money vs. morals. It is humiliating to think that a great historic party will sell its birthright for a mess of pottage, that it will join hands with brewers and saloons and cast morals to the winds.

"If I am elected president I propose to devote all the ability that is in me to the constructive work of suggesting to Congress the means by which the Roosevelt policies shall be clinched."—Hon. William H. Taft, at Sandusky, Ohio, September 8th, 1908.

THE ARCHBOLD SIDE OF CASE

Standard Oil Men Says the Hearst Letters Were Stolen.

SOLD TO NEWSPAPER MAN

Correspondence Looted From the Files of the Vice President of the Standard Oil Company Three Years Ago Has Now Appeared, Archbold Says, in the Hands of William R. Hearst, Who Has Been Using Purloined Letters to Add to the Gaiety of the Campaign He Is Making.

New York, Sept. 30.—A new phase of the discussion of the so-called "Standard Oil correspondence," made public recently by William R. Hearst, was entered upon today when John D. Archbold, vice president of the Standard Oil company, made a statement setting forth details of the alleged theft of correspondence from his files. Mr. Archbold said: "In response to many inquiries as to the theft of letters from my files, the following may be made known:

"Over three years ago a report reached me that certain of my letters had been offered for sale to newspapers of this city, avowedly as stolen letters. Examination showed that some letters were missing and that they could only have been taken by someone not only familiar with the office details, but highly trusted. The party on whom suspicion fell stoutly denied all guilt. A little later, however, a man who represented himself as acting between the thief and those to whom the letters had been sold, proposed to return some of the letters for a consideration. His story was that the idea of the theft had been conceived by his brother, who had at one time been in the company's employ, and that this brother had induced the employee already suspected to accomplish the theft. According to the go-between's story, he had disposed of the letters, or some of them, to two men who purchased them on behalf of Mr. Hearst's newspaper, the Journal. Not only had stolen letters been thus traded for, but the thief was induced to carry off one or more letter-copying books, many of whose pages he claims were photographed, other pages being removed altogether. The books in question the go-between returned after forty-eight hours. It is impossible to say how many were stolen and sold in this way. The thieves worked at their leisure. It is not thought necessary to say more at present or to mention names. Corroboration of the go-between's story of three years ago lay in his return of some of the correspondence at the time. The production of stolen letters by Mr. Hearst is further corroboration now. Obviously among such a coterie authenticity of their output is not to be lightly accepted. The opportunity for falsification, suppressing of context, distortion of passages, are many."

HELD TO ANSWER

Eight Indictments Returned in White-capping Case.

Rushville, Ind., Sept. 30.—The grand jury, which has been in session nearly three weeks, has returned indictments against eight prominent citizens of Posey township, alleging complicity in the "whitecapping" which occurred on the night of Aug. 5. John B. Tribbey was the victim. He was carried from his home by a number of masked men, stripped of his night-clothes and beaten until he was insensible.

Men under arrest are Burt O. Kennedy, Gurney Drysdale and Perry D. Collins. Mrs. Leona Tribbey, wife of the victim, has also been arrested. Other arrests will probably be made before many hours. All the defendants are land owners and citizens of good standing. They appeared before Judge Will M. Sparks and gave bond in $1,000 each. The charge is riotous conspiracy.

Wheat prices on the Chicago exchange declined more than one cent Monday, owing to the heavy selling pressure brought out mainly by a record-breaking increase in the world's available stocks of wheat.

MR. BRYAN TRIES TO ANSWER ROOSEVELT

Letter Addressed to the President at Rock Island.

Rock Island, Ill., Sept. 30.—"I have lived in vain if your accusations have lost me a single friend," said William J. Bryan in a letter addressed to President Roosevelt, replying to that of the president written Sunday last.

Mr. Bryan points to his record and declares that it is a sufficient answer to the insinuations of the chief executive that he is in sympathy with or controlled by the trusts.

Reverting to the charges against Governor Haskell, Mr. Bryan says that the president, in response to his request, did not deign to suggest a tribunal which could determine those charges, but instead proceeded to pass judgment upon him, and he informs the president that the occupant of that high office cannot deny the humblest citizen the right to protect his reputation and vindicate his name in the courts. Taking up the president's assertion that certain trust magnates, fearing prosecution under Mr. Taft, will support the Democratic candidate, Mr. Bryan charges that the president worded his statement in such a way as to claim the support of all the trust magnates, "and yet put it on the ground that they are supporting your party for patriotic reasons rather than for the promotion of a selfish interest."

Such an argument, he contends, is ingenious but not sound. In proof of the fact that he would not be controlled by the trusts, Mr. Bryan says that if elected he will enforce the anti-trust laws, "not spasmodically and intermittently, but persistently and consistently."

Mr. Bryan, in dealing with the Democratic campaign fund of 1896 as compared with the Republican campaign fund of 1904, charges that the president "pays more attention to the mote than to the beam," and asserts that in 1904 the Republicans used in one state alone a fund almost as large as the Democratic party had in its control. The letter concludes with the notice to the president that an opportunity will be afforded him to misrepresent the motives of those who give to our campaign fund and to arouse all the suspicion you can."

FIGHT NOT FINISHED.

There is now a county option law on Indiana's statute books. The temperance men of the state of all parties rejoice. There is general expression of the conviction that the calling of the legislature in special session has been justified by its action. The majority vote on the big issue is notable. It was larger than most advocates of the new law dared to hope for. The wagon of the winners attracted a number of our Hoosier statesmen on Saturday. The vaunted powers, persuasive and pecuniary, of the brewers and their hired workers, failed to realize the hopes of Taggart, Lieber and Crawford Fairbanks. Verily, the people do rule in Indiana.

While Republicans rejoice in what has been won, none should forget that there is much yet to do. Our county local option principle, that is a prime one in our state platform this year, has been enacted into law. It must be protected and should be endorsed over-whelmingly by the voters on election day. Defeat has come to the Democrats and the brewers that fought with and for them. That reverse will spur them to even greater vigor in the remaining weeks of the campaign. This is the time when all good citizens should buckle their armor anew to meet the foe and fight him to a finish. The battle is still on. Our confidence braced and our courage made more steadfast by victory in the first encounter, we have an advantage. It will help us to win the greater fight to come. This is no hour in which to rest on victorious arms. We may sing paens, but let us pray for added strength to conquer in our conclusive engagement in the polling booths. We will need it. We can have it. We shall have it. And the glory we have won will be dimmed by the greater victory we shall achieve. Eternal vigil or is needed. Let each voter bear his part in supplying it.

Attorney General Bingham has won another fall in his suits to annul the charters of five of the large brewing companies of the state on the ground that they are engaging in the saloon business contrary to law. The Marion county superior court held that it has the jurisdiction to try the cases and that the attorney general is the proper relator to the state to bring the proceedings. Judges Carter and McMaster handed down decisions in the cases affecting the Indianapolis Brewing company, the American and Capital City Brewing companies. Similar suits are pending against the Terre Haute Brewing company and the Home Brewing company of Indianapolis. It is now up to the brewers to make the next move.

S.S.S. CONTAINS NO MERCURY

Medicines containing Mercury are often given to persons suffering with Contagious Blood Poison, and so powerful is the action of this drug that it frequently removes the symptoms in a short while, and shuts the disease up in the system to do greater damage to the delicate internal members. When, however, the treatment is left off, the disease always returns, and the patient finds that his health has been injured by this powerful mineral, and he is often left with weak stomach, disturbed digestion, mercurial rheumatism, etc. The action of S. S. S. is entirely different. It contains no Mercury, nor any other harmful drug, but is made entirely of healing, cleansing roots and herbs. It cures Contagious Blood Poison by removing the virus from the blood. It searches out every particle of the poison and does not leave the least trace for future outbreaks. S. S. S., in addition to curing the disease, builds up and strengthens every part of the body. Its fine tonic effects tone up the stomach and digestion, improve the appetite and regulate the entire system. Home treatment book containing valuable information about the different stages of the disease and any medical advice desired sent free to all who write.

A BAD CASE

A Seymour man cured of a bad case of Piles by

Dr. H. I. Sherwood,

Who makes a specialty of the cure of chronic diseases, male or female.

SEYMOUR, IND., Sept. 7, 1908.

For a period of eight years I suffered with painful, sore, bleeding, protruding, internal piles, which would so weaken me at times that I would be compelled to lose several days work. In August, 1908, Dr. Sherwood commenced treatment and now after a period of less than one month I am sound and well, the first time in eight years that I have been entirely clear of pile symptoms.

THE GOLD MINE DEPARTMENT STORE

We Bid For Your Fall Supply

Now is the time to visit our store. The advisability of early buying was never more demonstrated than it will be this season. Fewer goods have been manufactured and imported than for some years and as a result there will be a scarcity, especially in the fabrics most in demand as the season advances.

Southern Indiana's Great Department Store is now completely replenished in its various departments with the best values that the different markets afford. Our Eastern trip in conjunction with our other stores operated by this same company has advantages in purchasing meaning a great saving to you, as we come mostly in direct connection with mills and manufacturers and buying in quantities that enable us to save you many a dollar. We use no premiums, trading stamps or giving-away scheme to sell our goods. Our motto "A little better quality at a little lower price" means more to the purse than an inexpensive donation.

New Modes of Tailored Suits.

In our Suit and Cloak room are shown variety, exclusiveness and artistic elegance of the beautiful Fall Tailored Suits, Skirts and Wraps. All women should be interested in seeing this Fall exhibition of new styles. Tailored Skirts in the most prominent styles, as well as beautifully trimmed in Satin or Silk Bands, or the popular Button trimming, at prices that will astonish you. The materials consist of Panamas, Hard Twisted Worsteds, Serges, Broadcloths and the in-demand Voilles.

Ladies' Tailored Waists are quite the favored styles for the Fall season. Striped Percales, Madras and Poplins, French Flannels, Silks, Nets and the fashionable Messaline Satins.

Our Bargain Basement.

Space will forbid us to give this Department the justice it is entitled to.

All we can add if in need of China, Bric-a-brac, Glass-ware, Tin and Granite-ware and House Furnishings, a saving on your purchase is waiting.

Underwear and Hosiery Department.

We have this season contracted for the celebrated Forest Mills Underwear and Gordon Dye and Albion Hose for men, women and children.

In presenting this vast assortment this season we wish to say we believe them to be the very finest line on the market today. Every garment contains more real value and wear than any other at the price.

The Gordon Dye Hosiery is known for its superiority in color, as well as its perfectness in quality.

Millinery Department.

A complete display of Millinery fashions, consisting of some very clever styles in Ready-to-wear, as well as an elaborate showing of high class Pattern Hats mostly from Eastern markets, coupled with the wonderfully clever conceptions of our own corps of expert designers, making in all a display that for modish designs, richness of material, artistically arranged, and most essential, the low prices, can not be equalled in this vicinity.

Dress Goods and Silk Department.

This department is now at its very best and invites the public to see all the new materials and weaves, as well as the much in demand colors that are shown. The styles and quality were never better nor prettier and the prices never cheaper, quality considered. Don't delay; come and see them.

New Chevron stripes in plain colors and two-toned effects, diagonal weaves, Taffetas, fine and heavy Serges, Panamas and a liberal assortment of exclusive Dress Patterns in imported materials. The popular Silks are Messaline Satin, Taffetas, and rough effects for dresses.

Our line of Black Silks surpasses any former showing for the best values.

The domestic and woolen department in this large store has certainly advantages above any other store, as goods of this character are bought in bales and cases through large commission houses, saving the middle-man's profit and giving such to our customers.
